

SL8TR

AC LOWRANCE

Born and raised in Baton Rouge and still under a year in his career, SL8TR has pushed the envelope from day 1. SL8TR has always enjoyed singing, but wasn't until 2018 decided to start journey as a professional artist. With over 700k streams in the first 6 months of releasing his first song, SL8TR's numbers have yet to slow down. With performances from Miami to New Orleans and fans across the globe, SL8TR set the bar high for independent artists. From writing, producing, mixing, and graphics, SL8TR has re-defined the term "one man band".

After leaving his corporate job to pursue his music career, SL8TR has laid down a path to success that will surely be reached with his breakthrough single "Don't Assume My Genre". With every release growing bigger and bigger, this heavily anticipated single will be a top performer. Already performed in his home town of Baton Rouge, the feedback was phenomenal. Continuing to release a song every month for his fans, nothing will be able to slow him down. Always driven to succeed, motivated to record, produce, and push the bar for the independent artists; SL8TR has and will continue to bring good music to his generation.
